React Native Developer

Jan 2023 — Feb 2025

- Led mobile development for 10+ production applications serving thousands of users, implementing robust architecture patterns and best practices to ensure scalability and maintainability.
- Architected and delivered critical features including real-time data synchronization, advanced animations, and complex user interactions, reducing app crash rates and improving overall app performance.
- Established comprehensive mobile development workflows including CI/CD pipelines, code review processes, and technical documentation that became team standards, accelerating development cycles by improving code quality and reducing deployment time.
- Created detailed technical documentation comparing animation frameworks (Reanimated, Lottie, Animated API) with performance benchmarks, adopted as reference material across the engineering team.

Özyeğin University
